OUR SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES

At ART EVENT, our social responsibilities and ethical approach are firmly rooted in our vision, mission, corporate values, policies, and law.

Therefore, beside complying with all relevant legislation we seek to go beyond that to ensure that the working environment within all areas of our business protects the human rights of our employees, embraces diversity and offers fairness and equality in every respect.

AMFORI BSCI

Since 2019, ART EVENT by is a member of amfori (former Foreign Trade Association), the leading global business association of European and international trade. As part of our participation in the amfori BSCI (Business Social Compliance Initiative), we work with other actors in the supply chain to ensure safe and fair working conditions.

In accordance with the 11 principles of the amfori BSCI code of conduct the working conditions in our entire supply chain are continuously evaluated and - where necessary - optimized. And with result. The most recent amfori BSCI audit carried out at the ART EVENT production facility yielded an overall a rating. The highest rating possible.
